University of Cambridge
Faculty of Law

TRIPOS EXAMINATIONS AND EXAMINATION IN LAW FOR EUROPEAN STUDENTS 2019/20

FORM OF THE EXAMINATION (Number of Questions)

and

CONDUCT OF THE EXAMINATION (Permitted Materials and Word Limits)

Revised April 2020
FORM AND CONDUCT NOTICE FOR LAW TRIPOS EXAMINATIONS AND EXAMINATION IN LAW FOR EUROPEAN STUDENTS 2019/20

Part 1: Form of Examination (Number of Questions)

The Faculty Board of Law gives notice that the form of the examination for Law Tripos Examinations and the Examination in Law for European Students (ELES) in 2019/20 will be as follows:

LAW TRIPOS (OTHER THAN HALF PAPERS)

Paper 10 Civil Law I
- Part IA, Part IB and ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions. Candidates will be required to attempt a total of three questions.

- Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions. Candidates will be required to attempt a total of four questions.

Paper 11 Constitutional Law
- Part IA, Part IB and ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Paper 12 Criminal Law
- Part IA and ELES: The paper will be divided into two sections and will contain no fewer than eight questions. Candidates will be required to attempt a total of three questions of which at least one must be taken from each section.

- Part II: The paper will be divided into two sections and will contain no fewer than eight questions. Candidates will be required to attempt two questions from each section.

Paper 13 Law of Tort
- Part IA, Part IB and ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Paper 14 Legal Skills and Methodology
This paper will be evaluated by way of extended essay assigned at least two weeks before the last day of Full Michaelmas term. Candidates will have a choice of one of three titles. The word limit for the extended essay will be 3,000 words.

Paper 20 Law of Contract
- Part IB and ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Paper 21 Land Law
- Part IB: The paper will be divided into two sections and will contain no fewer than eight questions. Candidates will be required to attempt a total of three questions of which at least one question must be taken from section A (problem questions).

Paper 30 Civil Law II
- Part IB: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

- Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any four.

Paper 31 Administrative Law
- Part IB and ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.
Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any four.

Paper 32 Family Law
Part IB: The paper will be divided into two sections and will contain no fewer than eight questions. Candidates will be required to attempt a total of three questions of which at least one must be taken from each section.

Part II: The paper will be divided into two sections and will contain no fewer than eight questions. Candidates will be required to attempt a total of four questions of which at least one must be taken from each section.

Paper 33 Legal History
Part IB: The paper will contain no fewer than ten questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than ten questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any four.

Paper 34 Criminology, Sentencing and the Penal System
Part IB and ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than thirteen questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than thirteen questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any four.

Paper 35 Criminal Procedure and Evidence
Part IB and ELES: The paper will be divided into two sections and will contain no fewer than eight questions. Candidates will be required to attempt a total of three questions of which at least one must be taken from each section.

Part II: The paper will be divided into two sections and will contain no fewer than eight questions. Candidates will be required to attempt a total of four questions of which at least one must be taken from each section.

Paper 36 Comparative Law
Part IB: The paper will contain no fewer than nine questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than nine questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any four.

Paper 37 Jurisprudence
Part IB: The paper will be divided into two sections and will contain no fewer than eight questions. Candidates will be required to attempt a total of two questions: one from each section.

Part II: The paper will be divided into two sections and will contain no fewer than eight questions. Candidates will be required to attempt a total of three questions of which at least one must be taken from each section.

Paper 38 International Law
Part IB and ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than nine questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than nine questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any four.
Paper 40 Equity

Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than nine questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any four.

Paper 41 European Union Law

ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any four.

Paper 42 Competition Law

ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any four.

Paper 43 Commercial Law

Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any four.

Paper 44 Labour Law

Part II: The paper will be divided into two sections and will contain no fewer than ten questions. Candidates will be required to attempt a total of four questions of which at least one question must be taken from Section A and at least one question from Section B.

Paper 45 Intellectual Property

ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any four.

Paper 46 Company Law

Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any four.

Paper 47 Aspects of Obligations

Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any four.

Paper 48 Conflict of Laws

ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than eight questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any four.
LAW TRIPOS (HALF PAPERS)

Paper 49 Prescribed Subjects

Paper 49D Historical Foundations of the British Constitution
   ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than six questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any two.

   Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than six questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Paper 49F Landlord and Tenant
   Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than six questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Paper 49I Topics in Legal and Political Philosophy
   ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than five questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any two.

   Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than five questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Paper 49L EU Environmental and Sustainable Development Law
   ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than six questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any two.

   Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than six questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

Paper 49P Topics in European Legal History
   ELES: The paper will contain no fewer than six questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any two.

   Part II: The paper will contain no fewer than six questions of which candidates will be required to attempt any three.

April 2020
Part 2: Conduct of Examination (Permitted Materials and Word Limits)

PERMITTED MATERIALS

The Faculty Board of Law gives notice of the statutes and other materials that candidates may use in Law Tripos Examinations and the Examination in Law for European Students in 2019/20.

Given the exceptional circumstances affecting the 2020 Easter Term exams, there are no restrictions on referring during the assessment to books and other materials, whether on paper, online, or in computer files.

WORD LIMITS

The following word limits apply to Law Tripos Examinations and the Examination in Law for European Students:

Part IA
3,750 words per examination paper.

Part IB
3,750 words per examination paper.

Part II
All papers except Paper 49 (half papers): 5,000 per examination paper.
Paper 49 (half paper): 3,500 words per examination paper.

ELES
All papers except Paper 49 (half papers): 3,750 words per examination paper.
Paper 49 (half papers): 2,350 words per examination paper.

If the applicable word limit is exceeded, Examiners will stop reading at the point at which the word limit is reached.

April 2020