LAW FACULTY OPEN DAY

Wednesday, 3 July 2019

TRAVEL INFORMATION

The Law Faculty Open Day will be held at the Law Faculty Building in Cambridge:

The David Williams Building
10 West Road
Cambridge, CB3 9DZ
United Kingdom

For directions to the building and a map of Cambridge and the surrounding area please go to the Sidgwick Site map on www.cam.ac.uk/map

BY CAR

Parking
During weekdays, parking is not permitted on the Sidgwick site, except to permit holders. It is sometimes possible to find metered street parking near the Faculty of Law in Sidgwick Avenue, Grange Road, Queens Road and West Road (4 hour periods are allowed), but can be difficult at peak times.

Alternatively, there are also a number of car parks in the town centre, and five Park and Ride sites, the nearest being Madingley Road. Details are available on the Cambridge City Council website at www.cambridge.gov.uk.

Directions from the M11 driving northwards or southwards
Exit M11 at Junction 12
Follow A603 (Barton Road) eastwards into Cambridge
You should pass Wolfson College on your left and the Hat and Feathers Pub on your right
Turn left into Grange Road (just after the pedestrian crossing)
Take the second right hand turn into Sidgwick Avenue
Turn left into the University of Cambridge Sidgwick Site, where the Faculty of Law is located.

Directions from the M11 driving northwards (only)
Exit M11 at junction 13 (available driving northwards only)
Follow the A1303 (Madingley Road) eastwards into Cambridge
Turn right into Grange Road
Turn 2nd left into Sidgwick Avenue
Turn left into the University of Cambridge Sidgwick Site, where the Faculty of Law is located.
BY TRAIN

There are frequent rail services from London (King’s Cross and Liverpool Street Stations). Journey times vary from 50 minutes to 1 hour 20 minutes. Telephone National Rail Enquiries for information about departure times on 0845 7484950 or visit their website www.nationalrail.co.uk

Cambridge railway station is situated one mile from the town centre and is about a 30 minute walk from Cambridge railway station to the Faculty of Law. There is a regular bus service into the town centre, and is about a 15 minute walk from there to the Faculty.

There are usually plenty of taxis available at the station and in the town centre. Ask to be dropped off on West Road; follow the path into the Sidgwick site and after 50 yards you will see the Faculty of Law building on your left.

Further information on rail travel to Cambridge can be found on the University of Cambridge website at www.cam.ac.uk/cambarea/trains

BY BUS/COACH

For information on nationwide scheduled coach services, see the National Express website at www.nationalexpress.com or telephone 08717818178.

Drummer Street bus station is situated in Cambridge town centre. It’s a 15 minute walk from the bus station to the Faculty of Law. (See map on www.cam.ac.uk/map)

There are usually plenty of taxis available at the station and in the town centre. Ask to be dropped off on West Road; follow the path into the Sidgwick site and after 50 yards you will see the Faculty of Law building on your left.

BY AIR

There are direct bus or coach services from Heathrow, Stansted, Gatwick and Luton airports to Cambridge.

For more information telephone National Express on 08705 808080 or look at the National Express website www.nationalexpress.com

Train services from most airports are also available.